

Royal College of Psychiatrists in Scotland
Medical Psychotherapy Faculty Conference
In conjunction with the Melanie Klein Trust
Friday 24th & Saturday 25th November 2017
Pitlochry Festival Theatre

Before and Beyond Words: Exploring Melanie Klein's Work and Influence

Programme

Friday 24th November 2017

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 09.30 – 11.00 | Psychotherapy Faculty Executive Committee Meeting |
| 11.00 – 12.00 | Psychotherapy Faculty AGM |
| 11.30 – 12.00 | Arrival & Registration |
| 12.00 – 13.10 | Sit-down lunch served |

Afternoon Session

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 13.10 – 13.30 | 'Klein in Scotland I'
Dr John Shemilt, Member, British Psychoanalytic Society and Scottish Association of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapists |
| 13.30 – 14.30 | 'Persecutory anxiety and Revenge Phantasies as barriers to development'
Dr Andrew Dawson, Consultant Child Psychotherapist & Professional Lead for Child Psychotherapy for Specialist Children's Services, Greater Glasgow and Clyde Health Board |
| 14.30 – 14.45 | Tea & Coffee served |
| 14.45 – 15.45 | 'When Less is More: Exploring jointly-created music-making as the basis of the dialogical and relational approach in music therapy with forensic patients'
Kristin Macdonald, Head Music Therapist for the Lothians and Fife, Nordoff Robbins Scotland |
| 15.45 – 16.00 | Tea & coffee served |
| 16.00 – 16.45 | 'Man and Boy in the Secure Setting'
Dr Alasdair Forrest, ST5 trainee in Psychotherapy and Forensic Psychiatry, NHS Grampian |
| 17.00 – 17.30 | Large group discussion |
| 19.30 | Dinner and Ceilidh |

Saturday 25th November 2017

08:45 – 09.10 Arrival & Registration

Morning Session

- 09.10 - 09.30 'Klein in Scotland II'
Dr John Shemilt, Member, British Psychoanalytic Society and Scottish Association of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapists
- 09.30 – 10.45 'Re-visiting Melanie Klein's "Narrative of a child analysis": some thoughts about contemporary clinical practice in the light of Klein's fearless approach to interpretation'
Margaret Rustin, Honorary Consultant Child Psychotherapist, Tavistock Clinic, and Child Analyst. Joint author with Michael Rustin: Reading Klein
- 10.45 – 11.00 Tea and coffee served
- 11.00 - 12.15 'A mind of One's Own: An adolescent's search for identity in the light of early anxieties'
Margot Waddell, Fellow of the British Psychoanalytic Society and Child Analyst. Formerly Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist at the Tavistock Clinic
- 12.15 – 13.30 Sit-down lunch served

Afternoon Session

- 13.30 – 14.45 'The Vicissitudes of Gratitude in Work with Children who are Looked After and Accommodated'
Dr Debbie Hindle, Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist, Human Development Scotland
- 14.45 – 15.15 Plenary
- 15.15 – 16.30 Visit to Girl Guide Hut
This is the setting of Melanie Klein's analysis of "Richard". A plaque commemorating this work was unveiled here by Hanna Segal in 1987. Please note that the walk to the hut is a 1.6 mile round-trip.
- 16.30 Conference close